PRESS RELEASE

ALH Group acquires Compass Hotel Group in WA.

ALH Group is pleased to announce that it has signed documentation to acquire all the freeholds and businesses of The Compass Hotel Group (Receivers and Managers Appointed) consisting of 12 Hotels in WA.

ALH Group currently operates 16 hotels in Western Australia, and the acquisition of the Compass Hotels will complement our existing properties.

The 12 Compass Hotels in Western Australia being purchased are:

- Albion Hotel, Cottesloe
- Belmont Tavern, Belmont
- Brighton Hotel, Mandurah
- Carine Glades Tavern, Duncraig
- Gosnells Hotel, Gosnells
- Greenwood Hotel, Greenwood
- Herdsman Lake Tavern, Wembley
- Kalamunda Hotel, Kalamunda
- Lakers Tavern, Thornlie
- Peel Alehouse, Halls Head
- Peninsula Tavern, Maylands,
- Princess Road Tavern, Balga

ALH Group National Operations Manager and CEO designate Bruce Mathieson Jnr said “We are excited with this purchase as the Compass Hotels operate a wide range of bars and bistros. We will be able to offer great food at great value, and showcase our Graziers brand steaks to locals at these pubs. The pubs will also continue to offer a wide range of beers, including local, imported and handcrafted products.”

Completion of the acquisition will occur once all applicable regulatory conditions have been met.
